The Democratic party has done fittle in the half century to atone for that second. During the last twenty-five years, aided by its Missouri ailles, the brewers and liquor dealers, who have grown opulent and insolent, it has waged continual warfare upon the wis-dom and validity of the prohibitory law and every measure taken for its enforcement.

The speaking dates for Senator Harthe speaking dates for Senator Har-ris for the next two weeks were an-nounced today as follows: Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Kansas City stock show: Thursday at Linwood; Friday at Manhattan: Saturday at Chay Center; Tuesday at Kinaley; Wednes-day at Great Bend: Thursday at Lyons; Friday at Wichita; Saturday at Well-

George W. Conneil, the editor and owner of the Lecompton Sun, a Republican newspaper in Douglas county, in the last issue of his paper holted Governor Hoch and Fred S. Jackson and announced that he would support Colonel W. A. Harris and David Overnyer for their law enforcement pledges. The editor of the Sun declares that anything Governor Hoch could promise on law enforcement would be given the lie by his present administration, Mr. Connell says further that the governor has made no effort to enforce the prohibitory law nor use the supreme court in ousting district officials in citis where the law is not enforced, except Kansas
